

HB 1155 -- BONDING AUTHORITY

SPONSOR: Hough

This bill specifies that the executive branch does not have the authority for the extension of existing bonds or to issue new bonds, including bonds for the St. Louis Regional Convention and Sports Complex Authority, without legislative or voter approval.

The provisions of this bill contain an emergency clause.